

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Story Sequencing

Answers

Event	Order
It felt strange to be on his own. The boy realised he had made a big mistake! The penguin wasn't lost. He was just lonely. He quickly turned the boat around and headed back to get the penguin.	6
The next morning, he discovered that penguins come from the South Pole. He ran to the harbour to ask the big ship to take them there, but his voice couldn't be heard over the ship's horn.	3
When he got back to the South Pole, he couldn't see the penguin anywhere! He searched and searched, then sadly set off for home.	7
The boy decided to help the penguin find its way home. First, he checked with Lost and Found Office, but nobody was missing a penguin. Next, he asked birds if they knew where the penguin came from, but they just ignored him.	2
One day, a boy found a penguin at his door. He didn't know where it had come from, but it started following him everywhere. He thought the penguin might be lost.	1
When they got to the South Pole, the boy was delighted, but the penguin looked very sad as the boy helped him out of the boat and they said goodbye.	5
Then, off in the distance, the boy saw something. As he got closer, he saw that it was the penguin. They hugged, and set off together, talking about wonderful things all the way.	8
So the boy and the penguin decided to row to the South Pole. They tested the boat, packed it up, and set sail, rowing for many days and nights.	4

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Story Sequencing

Sequence the events into the order in which they happened

Event	Order
It felt strange to be on his own. The boy realised he had made a big mistake! The penguin wasn't lost. He was just lonely. He quickly turned the boat around and headed back to get the penguin.
The next morning, he discovered that penguins come from the South Pole. He ran to the harbour to ask the big ship to take them there, but his voice couldn't be heard over the ship's horn.	3
When he got back to the South Pole, he couldn't see the penguin anywhere! He searched and searched, then sadly set off for home.
The boy decided to help the penguin find its way home. First, he checked with Lost and Found Office, but nobody was missing a penguin. Next, he asked birds if they knew where the penguin came from, but they just ignored him.	2
One day, a boy found a penguin at his door. He didn't know where it had come from, but it started following him everywhere. He thought the penguin might be lost.
When they got to the South Pole, the boy was delighted, but the penguin looked very sad as the boy helped him out of the boat and they said goodbye.	5
Then, off in the distance, the boy saw something. As he got closer, he saw that it was the penguin. They hugged, and set off together, talking about wonderful things all the way.
So the boy and the penguin decided to row to the South Pole. They tested the boat, packed it up, and set sail, rowing for many days and nights.	4

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Story Sequencing

Sequence the events into the order in which they happened

Event	Order
It felt strange to be on his own. The boy realised he had made a big mistake! The penguin wasn't lost. He was just lonely. He quickly turned the boat around and headed back to get the penguin.
The next morning, he discovered that penguins come from the South Pole. He ran to the harbour to ask the big ship to take them there, but his voice couldn't be heard over the ship's horn.
When he got back to the South Pole, he couldn't see the penguin anywhere! He searched and searched, then sadly set off for home.
The boy decided to help the penguin find its way home. First, he checked with Lost and Found Office, but nobody was missing a penguin. Next, he asked birds if they knew where the penguin came from, but they just ignored him.
One day, a boy found a penguin at his door. He didn't know where it had come from, but it started following him everywhere. He thought the penguin might be lost.
When they got to the South Pole, the boy was delighted, but the penguin looked very sad as the boy helped him out of the boat and they said goodbye.
Then, off in the distance, the boy saw something. As he got closer, he saw that it was the penguin. They hugged, and set off together, talking about wonderful things all the way.
So the boy and the penguin decided to row to the South Pole. They tested the boat, packed it up, and set sail, rowing for many days and nights.

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Story Sequencing

Answers

Event	Order
The boy realised he had made a big mistake! The penguin wasn't lost. He headed back to get the penguin.	6
The next morning, he discovered that penguins come from the South Pole.	3
When he got back to the South Pole, he couldn't see the penguin anywhere! He searched and searched, then sadly set off for home.	7
The boy decided to help the penguin find its way home. First, he checked with Lost and Found Office. Next, he asked birds if they knew where the penguin came from.	2
One day, a boy found a penguin at his door. He thought the penguin might be lost.	1
When they got to the South Pole, the boy was delighted, but the penguin looked very sad.	5
Then, off in the distance, the boy saw something. As he got closer, he saw that it was the penguin. They hugged and set off together.	8
So the boy and the penguin decided to row to the South Pole. They rowed for many days and nights.	4

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Story Sequencing

Sequence the events into the order in which they happened

Event	Order
The boy realised he had made a big mistake! The penguin wasn't lost. He headed back to get the penguin.	6
The next morning, he discovered that penguins come from the South Pole.
When he got back to the South Pole, he couldn't see the penguin anywhere! He searched and searched, then sadly set off for home.	7
The boy decided to help the penguin find its way home. First, he checked with Lost and Found Office. Next, he asked birds if they knew where the penguin came from.
One day, a boy found a penguin at his door. He thought the penguin might be lost.	1
When they got to the South Pole, the boy was delighted, but the penguin looked very sad.
Then, off in the distance, the boy saw something. As he got closer, he saw that it was the penguin. They hugged and set off together.	8
So the boy and the penguin decided to row to the South Pole. They rowed for many days and nights.

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Story Sequencing

Sequence the events into the order in which they happened

Event	Order
The boy realised he had made a big mistake! The penguin wasn't lost. He headed back to get the penguin.
The next morning, he discovered that penguins come from the South Pole.
When he got back to the South Pole, he couldn't see the penguin anywhere! He searched and searched, then sadly set off for home.
The boy decided to help the penguin find its way home. First, he checked with Lost and Found Office. Next, he asked birds if they knew where the penguin came from.
One day, a boy found a penguin at his door. He thought the penguin might be lost.
When they got to the South Pole, the boy was delighted, but the penguin looked very sad.
Then, off in the distance, the boy saw something. As he got closer, he saw that it was the penguin. They hugged and set off together.
So the boy and the penguin decided to row to the South Pole. They rowed for many days and nights.	