

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Punctuation

Look at these sentences about the story. Correct the sentences by adding in the capital letters and full stops.

1. one day, a boy found a penguin at his door he thought the penguin might be lost
2. the boy decided to help the penguin find its way home first, he checked with lost and found office next, he asked birds if they knew where the penguin came from
3. the next morning, he discovered that penguins come from the south pole
4. so the boy and the penguin decided to row to the south pole they rowed for many days and nights
5. when they got to the south pole, the boy was delighted, but the penguin looked very sad
6. the boy realised he had made a big mistake! the penguin wasn't lost he headed back to get the penguin
7. when he got back to the south pole, he couldn't see the penguin anywhere! he searched and searched, then sadly set off for home
8. then, off in the distance, the boy saw something... it was the penguin they hugged and set off together

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Punctuation

Look at these sentences about the story. Correct the sentences by adding in the capital letters and full stops.

1. one day, a boy found a penguin at his door
2. the boy decided to help the penguin find its way home
3. they used a row boat to travel to the south pole
4. the boy realized the penguin was lonely and went back for him
5. the boy and the penguin went home together

Can you draw a picture of the penguin sailing on the umbrella?

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Punctuation

Look at these sentences about the story. Correct the sentences by adding in the capital letters and full stops. Some have already been done for you.

1. one day, a boy found a penguin at his door He thought the penguin might be lost
2. The boy decided to help the penguin find its way home first, he checked with lost and found office next, he asked birds if they knew where the penguin came from.
3. the next morning, he discovered that penguins come from the south Pole
4. So the boy and the penguin decided to row to the south pole. they rowed for many days and nights
5. when they got to the south pole, the boy was delighted, but the penguin looked very sad.
6. the boy realised he had made a big mistake! The penguin wasn't lost he headed back to get the penguin
7. When he got back to the south pole, he couldn't see the penguin anywhere! he searched and searched, then sadly set off for home
8. then, off in the distance, the boy saw something... it was the penguin. they hugged and set off together

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Punctuation

Look at these sentences about the story. Correct the sentences by adding in the capital letters and full stops. Some have already been done for you.

1. One day, a boy found a penguin at his door
2. the boy decided to help the penguin find its way home.
3. they used a rowboat to travel to the south pole
4. The boy realized the penguin was lonely and went back for him
5. the boy and the penguin went home together.

Can you draw a picture of the penguin sailing on the umbrella?

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Punctuation

Look at these sentences about the story. Circle where the capital letters should go and add the full stops.

1. one day, a boy found a penguin at his door he thought the penguin might be lost
2. the boy decided to help the penguin find its way home first, he checked with lost and found office next, he asked birds if they knew where the penguin came from
3. the next morning, he discovered that penguins come from the south pole
4. so the boy and the penguin decided to row to the south pole they rowed for many days and nights
5. when they got to the south pole, the boy was delighted, but the penguin looked very sad
6. the boy realised he had made a big mistake! the penguin wasn't lost he headed back to get the penguin
7. when he got back to the south pole, he couldn't see the penguin anywhere! he searched and searched, then sadly set off for home
8. then, off in the distance, the boy saw something... it was the penguin they hugged and set off together

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Punctuation

Look at these sentences about the story. Circle where the capital letters should go and add the full stops.

1. one day, a boy found a penguin at his door
2. the boy decided to help the penguin find its way home
3. they used a row boat to travel to the south pole
4. the boy realized the penguin was lonely and went back for him
5. the boy and the penguin went home together

Can you draw a picture of the penguin sailing on the umbrella?

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Punctuation

Look at these sentences about the story. Circle where the capital letters should go and add the full stops. Some have already been done for you.

1. one day, a boy found a penguin at his door He thought the penguin might be lost
2. The boy decided to help the penguin find its way home. first, he checked with lost and found office next, he asked birds if they knew where the penguin came from.
3. the next morning, he discovered that penguins come from the south Pole
4. So the boy and the penguin decided to row to the south pole. they rowed for many days and nights
5. when they got to the south pole, the boy was delighted, but the penguin looked very sad.
6. the boy realised he had made a big mistake! The penguin wasn't lost he headed back to get the penguin
7. When he got back to the south pole, he couldn't see the penguin anywhere! he searched and searched, then sadly set off for home
8. then, off in the distance, the boy saw something... it was the penguin. they hugged and set off together

Name: _____

Book: Lost and Found

MF: Punctuation

Look at these sentences about the story. Circle where the capital letters should go and add the full stops. Some have already been done for you.

1. one day, a boy found a penguin at his door
2. the boy decided to help the penguin find its way home.
3. they used a rowboat to travel to the south pole
4. the boy realized the penguin was lonely and went back for him
5. the boy and the penguin went home together.

Can you draw a picture of the penguin sailing on the umbrella?